The Hollywood Concert Orchestra, an ensemble of America's finest musicians, is rapidly becoming one of the premier ensembles in the world. For this special event the HCO will be joined by Ms Shirley Jones as your host and she will perform some of her most memorable songs from the many Movie Musicals in which she starred over her career. She won the Academy Award for her dramatic performance in Elmer Gantry. Currently she is appearing on PBS and touring the world in various productions including her own series of concerts and Holiday shows. The Hollywood Concert Orchestra will be touring Asia this fall as well as touring throughout North America. This program is produced by John R. Giattino and Judith M. Giattino. Together they have been producing various concert tour thru the years and this season will again tour their popular holiday show. A Viense Christmas.
